Macomb County Parks and Recreation Commission for 2007 has been announced

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STERLING HEIGHTS - The Parks and Recreation Commission for 2007 has been announced and will meet the first Wednesday of each month at noon. This year begins with a new President, Dino F Bucci Jr. Bucci has been on the Parks Commission since 1997. He is currently a Macomb Township Trustee and is Operations Manager for the Macomb County Public Works Department. He is joined by new Vice President, Ann E. Klein. Klein is also Chairman for the Macomb County Planning Commission and is on the Warren Beautification Committee and Animal Rights Commission. Serving as Secretary is a new member of the board - William J. Revoir. Revoir was recently appointed to the Parks Commission by the Board of Commissioners. Revoir served as a County Commissioner for Clinton Township for over five years. He has served on many committees and is currently President of the Macomb County Jail Ministry and as a Board Member of the Macomb Homeless Coalition. Veteran Parks Commissioner Marvin Sauger takes over as Sergeant at Arms. Two more new board members include Robert M. Sawicki and Ruthie Stevenson. The rest of the board remains - Phillip A. DiMaria, Anthony J. Lipinski, Timothy M. Malone, Anthony V. Marrocco, and Betty Slinde.

Mr. Sawicki is a retired Public Works Superintendent for the City of St. Clair Shores. He also served as County Commissioner for District 23 for two years. He currently is a Road Commissioner. Ms. Stevenson was a Union Representative for Ford Motor Company and a facilitator for the Harassment Program teaching over 4,000 employees. She also helped to create the Diversity Program with Cornell University for Ford Motor.

The Macomb County Parks and Recreation Office is located Freedom Hill County Park, at 15000 Metropolitan Parkway in Sterling Heights, Michigan, between Schoenherr and Utica Roads. For more information call (586) 979-7010 or visit our web site: www.freedomhillcountypark.com
